

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Affects people from all walks of life

To learn more, read our regular column on this page.

The Domestic Violence Program of Catholic Charities of Schoharie County has a support group for victims and survivors of domestic violence.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE:

Anyone who feels they are or have been exposed to abuse by a family member, partner or roommate is welcome to attend.

WHEN: 1:30 Tuesday
afternoons.

WHERE: Catholic Charities of Schoharie County, 489 West
Main Street, Cobleskill.

*Childcare and transportation may be available.

If you feel you are being abused and you need help, or would like more information please call our office or our 24-hour hotline (518) 234-2231 (collect calls accepted).

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IS A CRIME!

Catholic Charities of Schoharie
County
Domestic Violence Program
489 West Main Street
Cobleskill, NY 12043
(518) 234-3581