

To send information to Bruce.....

Bruce Watson primarily covers fun stuff and happenings in the Richfield Springs Community. If you have a suggestion for a story or would like to submit information on birthdays, anniversaries, college student news or would like to have something mentioned in Bruce Watson's What's On column, email whatson@stny.rr.com. Publisher's note: Bruce is not an on-call reporter or photographer. His primary role is to write his What's On column and to share some of the comings and goings on in our community within a very limited time schedule.

To send information to The Pennysaver & Community News....

We are always seeking information about your club or groups news and happenings so help us keep you and your community connected. Send along any information about your upcoming free community event along with photos to communitynews@pennysaveronline.com or drop them off at the Pennysaver Office on Rt. 20 in Richfield Springs. (Across from Price Chopper). For verification purposes please include your phone number. Information will be run on a space available basis so we apologize in advance if a story or photo does not make it in a specific edition.

Ann Street Bridge Opens

Inspections have been completed and the new bridge on Ann Street in Richfield Springs is now open to traffic. Walkers, runners, bicyclists and motorists will enjoy that this 'artery' in the village is once more accessible. (photo by Cindy Klem)

Save the Date: Prime Rib Dinner

Boy Scout Troop 14 and Cub Pack 114 will sponsor a Prime Rib Dinner on Saturday, January 27 from 4-7 PM at the Vet's Club on Lake St. in Richfield Springs. Last Saturday morning the scouts were selling tickets at the RS branch of NBT Bank. Dinner includes prime rib (king cut), potato, vegetable, beverage and dessert. Tickets are available anytime at NBT Bank and the scouts will be there every Saturday morning. Call 315-794-1516 for information or to reserve your tickets. Support the scouts by attending this delicious meal!
