

Attention Town of Richfield:

The Town Board has created a committee to review the 2019 Zoning Law. As a part of the review process, the committee is seeking public input. If you are familiar with the law and have concerns regarding any aspect of it, we would appreciate your comments.

Town residents and business owners may submit input (in writing) either in person to the Town Clerk, by US Mail, or by email no later than March 20, 2021.

The committee will review the received suggestions and provide the Town Board with recommendations for possible changes to the law.
