

Community Maternity Services JOB ANNOUNCEMENT Case Manager/Parent Educator in Schoharie County

This position is full-time, 35 hours per week with a full benefit package and paid mileage. Individual will be responsible for providing home-based parent education services to families under our DSS contract and case management services to pregnant and parenting young adults in Schoharie County. The ideal candidate will be a team player, have good computer skills, excellent written and oral communication skills, be very organized and have good time management skills.

Candidate must have a clean driver's license, an automobile in good working order and pass a required background history check. In addition, a Bachelor's Degree in Human Services or related field or an Associate's Degree in a related field plus 3 years appropriate experience is required.

Interested candidates should forward resume and cover letter to: Stephanie Russell, Program Director, Community Maternity Services, P.O. Box 753, Schoharie, NY or email stephanie@cccms.org.

EOE