YOUNG INTERPRETER PROGRAM

The Farmers' Museum has an exciting opportunity for hardworking, self motivated boys and girls between the ages of 13 and 14.

The Young Interpreter Program is a highly competitive apprenticeship program, in which young people work side by side with museum staff to learn about America's past, develop skills, and share newfound knowledge with museum visitors. Young interpreters will work one day a week for 8 consecutive weeks starting the last week in June and ending the last week in August.

For more information, please go to our website, farmersmuseum.org and type Young Interpreter under the search icon for details on how to apply or contact Patrick MacGregor at p.macgregor@farmersmuseum.org or call 607-547-1527.
