

SUMMER PROGRAMS FOR KIDS at the CHERRY VALLEY MEMORIAL LIBRARY

We are offering three different programs this summer for kids—from story hours for little ones to a book discussion group for those in middle school and up.

COME JOIN IN...ALL PROGRAMS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

STORY HOUR - STORIES AND CRAFTS

Wednesdays, 10am-11am. Children aged 2-5 and their caregivers.
Ongoing...Drop in occasionally or come every week! It's FREE and FUN!

COLOR OUR WORLD - SUMMER READING PROGRAM

June 30th - August 16th

All ages! Read-aloud books count for pre-readers and other listeners...and adults can join too!

Earn colorful reading rewards! Supplies provided for activities ranging from 'Chalk the Walk' to 'Square Your Colors' to 'Color Wall Hanging'...come check out the Readers' Choice Colorful Books!

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP - SUMMER READING GROUP

Tuesdays, 3pm-5pm, July 8-August 19

Middle Schoolers on up

Try something new this summer! This 7-week book group invites young readers to stop in any or all Tuesdays.

Led by September Schecter, this program will feature 4 discussions (July 8, 22, Aug. 5, 19) and 3 open sessions. Snacks, books, friendly faces: Why not try something new and free?

Cherry Valley Memorial Library

61 Main Street, Cherry Valley • 607-264-8214

Library Hours: Mon. 9-12; 2-7, Wed. 9-12 (Story Hour 10-11), Thu.: 9-12; 2-7, Sat. 9-1

This summer, July 8-Aug. 19, the library is also open on Tuesdays, 3pm-5pm for middle schoolers and older book discussions, snacks, and free time to read!