

Butternut Barn Primitives Celebrates their 50th Year In Business Bringing Early Antiques and Timeless Charm to Richfield Springs

Butternut Barn Primitives, is proud to be celebrating their 50th year in business! "Time just goes by so quickly that it is hard to believe I am starting my 50th year in business " says Shopkeeper, Judie Stone. I had been a real estate agent back when banks were not lending funds. Spending a lot of time and money I went 3 years without selling a single property! Every loan was declined. My family and friends suggested I start my own business. So with a $300 personal loan from a close friend, I became the proprietor of Butternut Barn Primitives.

Located in an historic two-story carriage house in Richfield Springs, The Shop originally operated only in the groom's quarters and hayloft of the upstairs of the carriage house. As interest in early antiques and primitive décor grew, the business expanded seven years later to include the downstairs horse stalls as well, creating the eight-room experience visitors enjoy today.

Butternut Barn Primitives offers a truly unique shopping experience. The Barns features rooms thoughtfully decorated with early antiques and primitive wares, allowing visitors to see inspiring ways to display these timeless pieces in their own homes.

From the moment you enter the atmosphere of the barn, as many describe it, is a warm welcoming feeling that invites you to slow down, linger a bit and imagine simpler times from the past. Some even say it's not a traditional shop, as the charming atmosphere invites you to want to sit awhile and share stories over a cup of coffee.

For five decades, Butternut Barn Primitives has remained dedicated to offering carefully selected antiques and primitive pieces that help customers create warm, welcoming homes filled with character and history.

Butternut Barn Primitive warmly invites you to be a part of their 50th Year Celebration "Something To Crow About" April 18th & 19th from 10:00 am-5:00 pm. Join us as we celebrate this milestone! Many thanks to all who have shared this journey with us!
