PROGRESS CHENANGO 2025

Making Chenango County a better place to live

We can wait for the future—or we can start building it today. So, how are Chenango County's communities preparing for success? How are they gearing up for the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead? Are you interested in learning more about the key businesses and organizations shaping the future of Norwich, Sherburne, Greene, Oxford, Bainbridge, New Berlin, the Otselic Valley, and the other towns that make up Chenango County? From February 3 to February 7, 2025, The Evening Sun will present our annual Progress series, a longstanding tradition that captures the spirit of our community for the past year. This year's theme, "Progress: A Brighter Tomorrow," explores how organizations and public resources are being developed and invested through infrastructure, workforce, housing and public services to enhance the local quality of life. Progress will be included as part of the regular newspaper, with each day's edition featuring additional pages filled with business insights from across the county. Delivered at no extra charge to readers and available as keepsake sections, Progress serves as both an in-depth community resource and a valuable snapshot of the county's progress. Our readers and advertisers are vital partners of independent, local journalism. We are grateful for your continued help in keeping Chenango County informed and connected. What is Progress Chenango? Progress Chenango is an annual publication by The Evening Sun that highlights the advancements, challenges, and stories of resilience in Chenango County. Featuring insights from local business owners, representatives, and community leaders, this special edition provides a comprehensive look into what's changing and evolving in our region. Designed as a keepsake, Progress Chenango captures voices from the community and offers a year-round perspective on local progress.

47th Annual Winter Living Celebration at Rogers Center

Explore and enjoy all the wonderful things this time of year offers at the annual Winter Living Celebration. Both historical and modern CNY Winter Activities are showcased in this time-honored event, including exciting demonstrations, interactive crafts, and of course, horse-drawn sleigh rides! Everyone is welcome at the celebration on Saturday, February 1st from 11 am - 2 pm at Rogers Center in Sherburne. Free to the public.

In keeping with Winter Living Celebration tradition, visitors have the opportunity to view Environmental Conservation Officer and Forest Ranger demonstrations, relax by the campfire, or warm up with some hot cocoa and live music in the Rogers Visitor Center.

At the Bird Cabin, visitors can participate in fun child-focused crafts. Cornell Cooperative Extension's 4H and Grow, Cook, Serve programs will also be in attendance with even more engaging activities. Interactive live demonstrations will be presented on cross-cut sawing, ice-fishing, and fly-tying with Trout Unlimited.

This year we welcome the Oneida Indian Nation in celebration of traditional Haudenosaunee winter activities. Jessica Farmer, Cultural Programs Coordinator at the Shako:wi Cultural Center, will lead groups in basket weaving and incorporate oral storytelling traditions.

The celebration will also include the debut of the newly constructed Maple Sugar Shack, a heritage collaboration with the Chenango County Historical Society, in partnership with Clear Path for Veterans and the DCMO BOCES Carpentry program. All are invited to experience the next phase of this exciting community partnership and the interactive living history exhibit. Ribbon cutting at 11:30 am.

"Showcasing the new Sugar Shack is a dream come true," said David Carson, Friends of Rogers Executive Director. "We've been working hard for two years to make this happen, and it's time to light the fire and make some syrup."

Thanks to the Chenango Bird Club and the Rotary Club of Sherburne, food and refreshments will be available for purchase, with proceeds to benefit Friends of Rogers.

Weather permitting, free cross-country skiing and snowshoeing will be available.

The mission of the Friends of Rogers is to provide outstanding educational opportunities that excite, inspire, and motivate people of all ages to enjoy, understand, appreciate, and protect our natural environment. ➡

TAX GUIDE

THE RIGHT TO BE INFORMED

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers.

IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights.

It includes The Right to Be Informed.

Taxpayers have the right to know what they need to do to comply with the tax laws. They are entitled to clear explanations of the laws and IRS procedures in all tax forms, instructions, publications, notices and correspondence. They have the right to be informed of IRS decisions about their tax accounts and to receive clear explanations of the outcomes.

What you can expect:

- Certain notices must include the amount (if any) of the tax, interest, and certain penalties you owe. It must explain why you owe these amounts.
- When the IRS fully or partially disallows your claim for a refund, it must explain the specific reasons why.
- Help with Understanding Your IRS Notice or Letter is available online at IRS.gov.
- If the IRS proposes to assess tax against you, it must explain the process – from examination (audit) through collection – in its first letter. This letter should explain your options for a review by an independent Office of Appeals and how the Taxpayer Advocate Service may be able to help you.
- If you enter a payment plan, known as an installment agreement, the IRS must send you an annual statement. This gives you a record of balances and payments.

You can access current and prior year IRS forms and publications at IRS.gov. You can also request order them by calling 800-829-3676.

IRS also uses several social media tools that provide helpful tax information to a broad audience. You can find IRS on Twitter, YouTube, LinkedIn and the IRS2Go free mobile app.

To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service's website.

By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the "Languages" menu at the top of any IRS.gov page. The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers' civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites.

If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

WHAT IS PHISHING?

Phishing is a scam typically carried out through unsolicited email and/or websites that pose as legitimate sites and lure unsuspecting victims to provide personal and financial information. Report all unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS or an IRS-related function to phishing@irs.gov. If you've experienced any monetary losses due to an IRS-related incident, please report it to the Treasury Inspector General Administration (TIGTA) and file a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) through their Complaint Assistant to make the information available to investigators.

It is also a crime to offer or agree to sell a firearm, rifle or shotgun at a Gun Show and then transfer it at another location for the purpose of avoiding a National Instant Criminal Background Check.

Sellers of all modern firearms must provide a gun locking device suitable for said firearm, with written instructions, at time of sale.
