Roger Center Celebrates 46 Years of Winter Living Celebration

Experience the joy of winter during the 46th Annual Winter Living Celebration, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on February 3 at Rogers Center in Sherburne. This event is hosted by Friends of Rogers with help from several regional organizations such as the Bull Thistle Hiking Club and the 209th Chapter of Trout Unlimited.

“This is one of those special events that has a momentum all of its own. Hundreds of people show up every year to volunteer and to celebrate. It is the quintessential celebration of the winter season and it is an honor to host it here.” said David Carson, Friends of Rogers Executive Director.

This year the Winter Living Celebration debuts the newly renovated Bird Cabin after nearly two years of construction. At the Bird Cabin visitors can participate in fun child-focused activities like storytelling with our local libraries, and “All about Groundhogs” with Stephanie Crain, a nod to Groundhog Day the previous day. Cornell Cooperative Extension’s 4H and Grow, Cook, & Serve programs will also be in attendance with even more fun activities, and outside the Cabin visitors can try their skills with crosscut sawing and enjoy roasting marshmallows.

Visitors have the opportunity to become winter anglers at the ice fishing demonstration, while the DEC Environmental Conservation Officers just upstream demonstrate safety tips while you’re on the ice.

In keeping with Winter Living Celebration tradition, watch Stan the Ice Man turn ice into works of art and get up close and personal with our local feathered friends by becoming a human bird feeder.

Once you’ve had a chance to walk around, relax on a horse-drawn wagon ride around Rogers Center’s property, admiring all it has to offer or go inside the Rogers Education Center to warm up and listen to live music in the gallery.

Thanks to the Chenango Bird Club and the Rotary Club of Sherburne, food and refreshments will be available for purchase, with all proceeds to benefit Friends of Rogers.

Rogers Center is operated by Friends of Rogers Environmental Education Center, Inc., a nonprofit organization that offers educational programs for all ages. Seasonal winter hours are from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday, and from 12 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

For more information, call (607) 674-4733 or visit them on the web at friendsofrogers.org

The mission of the Friends of Rogers is to provide outstanding educational opportunities that excite, inspire, and motivate people of all ages to enjoy, understand, appreciate, and protect our natural environment. ➡

Thanks To You All!

To the Norwich Fire Dept. EMT's who took care of me and got me on my way after my heart attack! To Brad Darling, who kept my family informed of my condition while I was flown to Syracuse! To the many, many friends who prayed for me, showed their concerns by sending cards, posted on Facebook, and just kept me in their thoughts! It was over the top!

To those who visited me in the hospital and at home - Steve Alger, Marty Morse, Tom Jensen, Tom Mealey, and Denny Schlafer. When you are laid up for eight weeks your time with me was important. It's pretty boring to just sit forever!

To the NHS Varsity Football, Girls and Boys Varsity Basketball teams, I got a little choked up on my first day home when Joey Alger brought me some very thoughtful gifts showing your concerns!

To the Norwich Cyclone Boosters, who also remembered me with your gifts. It meant a lot to me!

To Violet Dunham and Paul Curnalia, who "got me to the church on time", when I couldn't drive!

To my neighbor Richard Roys, who took care of my driveway and sidewalk when it snowed!

To Cheri who stepped up and helped Matt at the store, drove me to appointments when I couldn't drive, fixed up things at my home, to make comfortable upon arriving home!

To my son, Matthew who rose up and put a lot of extra time in at the store at a busy time of the year - BE PROUD BUDDY!

And to my daughter Cathy Sherman. I wouldn't be doing this memo now if not for her life saving actions. I was at her house less than five minutes when I suffered the heart attack. She's a nurse who teaches CPR, and she used her knowledge and brought me back to life after 7-8 minutes, the EMT's then taking over. And after she brought me home from my 12 day stay at the hospital, she, for 37 straight days came to my house to inject antibiotics. Thank God for her, I appreciate what she did immensely!

Thanks To You All - I have learned that just being alive, feels really different now!
~Dave Ring

TAX GUIDE

THE RIGHT TO A FAIR AND JUST TAX SYSTEM

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service. The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers.

IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights. It includes The Right to a Fair and Just Tax System.

Taxpayers have the right to expect the tax system to consider facts and circumstances that might affect their underlying liabilities, ability to pay, or ability to provide information timely. Taxpayers have the right to receive assistance from the Taxpayer Advocate Service if they are experiencing financial difficulty or if the IRS has not resolved their tax issues properly and timely through its normal channels.

What you can expect:

- If you can't pay your tax debt in full and you meet certain conditions, you can get a payment plan with the IRS. You pay a set amount over time, generally in monthly payments. See the IRS Online Payment Agreement Application.
- You can submit an offer in compromise asking the IRS to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount. You can do this if (1) you believe you do not owe all or part of the tax debt, (2) you are unable to pay the full amount within the time permitted by law to collect it, or (3) paying the full amount would cause financial hardship or would be unjust.
- The IRS has published a list of national and local guidelines about the basic costs of living. You can use it when considering an offer to reduce your tax debt. The IRS won't use these guidelines if they result in your not having enough money to pay your basic living expenses. The IRS would use your actual expenses instead.
- The IRS cannot levy, or seize, all of your wages to collect your unpaid tax. A portion will be exempt from levy to allow you to pay basic living expenses.
- You can receive help from the Taxpayer Advocate Service or from a Low Income Taxpayer Clinic.
- The IRS can abate the unpaid portion of any tax or liability, and is specifically authorized to abate interest that is excessive or interest that was assessed erroneously, illegally, or after the statutory period of limitations on collection has expired.
- The IRS can abate interest on an underpayment caused by unreasonable delay or error by an IRS employee if the taxpayer (or representative) did not contribute to the delay or error.

To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service's website. By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the "Languages" menu at the top of any IRS.gov page. The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers' civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites. If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of Craigslist and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars. I have a nice selection of cars in the affordable $3-5K range, most are low miles or low miles for the age. I'm a lifetime resident of Norwich. Buy from someone local. No pressure, no fancy hype, just quality cars at fair prices! Central Auto Sales LLC, 429 Manley Road, Norwich. www.centralautosalesllc.com 607-336-6371.
