- What did the policeman say to his hungry stomach? “Freeze, You’re under a vest.”
- What do you call a rooster staring at a pile of lettuce? A chicken sees a salad.
- Why did the nurse need a red pen at work? In case she needed to draw blood.

How do I sign up for Medicare?
If you already get Social Security benefits, you do not need to sign up for Medicare. The Social Security Administration will automatically enroll you in Original Medicare (Part A and Part B) when you become eligible. You will receive a Medicare card in the mail. Because you must pay a premium for Part B coverage, you can turn it down. However, if you decide to sign up for Part B later, your coverage can be delayed, and you may have to pay a late enrollment penalty for as long as you have Part B coverage. Residents of Puerto Rico or foreign countries will NOT automatically receive Part B. They must elect this benefit.
If you don’t get Social Security benefits and are not ready to apply for them yet, you should sign up for Medicare three months before your 65th birthday.

The easiest way to apply for Medicare is by using the online application at www.ssa.gov/benefits/medicare/ or you can make an appointment by calling Social Security at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778), 8:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.
