Houseplant Tip

It's important to watch houseplants closely. According to gardenguides.com, an online gardening resource, you should inspect plants regularly for yellowing or discolored leaves. This condition is usually caused by overwatering, but can also be the result of insects. Deformed plants and sticky deposits on leaves and stems can be caused by insects as well.

This fundraiser made possible by Schaefer's Gardens: Chenango Forks, NY

Chenango Health Network's Financial Assistance Program provides financial assistance to Chenango County residents with a cancer diagnosis. Assistance may be in the form of gas cards for transportation to and from treatment, copays or other cancer related necessities.

*Funding is limited & CHN maintains the right to deny a request. Certain eligibility requirements apply.
A CHN application must be completed & submitted. CHN will evaluate on a case-by-case basis.
Contact Sandy Myers at 607-888-0287 for more information.

Reflections on the Chenango Canal & its Packet Boats: Christening of the Boats

The Erie Canal's First Boat
Seneca Chief
Arrived At Albany Nov 2nd, 1825.

Saturday, March 2, 2024 at 10.30am

History comes to life as the children of The Place christen handmade packet boat replicas with water from the Chenango Canal following on last October's presentation by Dianne Van Slyke and Bonnie Gale detailing the history of the Chenango Canal and willow artist Gale's crafting of a scale model of the Seneca Chief packet boat. The children worked hard learning about the canal and making their boats. Come out and help celebrate the history of the Chenango Canal. Project made possible by the Rural & Traditional Arts Fellowship 2023, a regrant program of the NYS Council on the Arts & by the Office of the Governor & the NYS Legislature administered by the Arts Council of Wyoming County.

TAX GUIDE

THE RIGHT TO PRIVACY

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TBOR) is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers.

IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights.

It includes The Right to Privacy.

Taxpayers have the right to expect that any IRS inquiry, examination, or enforcement action will comply with the law and be no more intrusive than necessary, and will respect all due process rights, including search and seizure protections and will provide, where applicable, a collection due process hearing.

What you can expect:

- There are limits on the amount of wages that the IRS can levy (seize) to collect tax that you owe. A portion of your wages are protected from levy. The protected amount is the equivalent to the standard deduction, plus any deductions for personal exemptions.
- The IRS can't seize certain personal items, such as necessary schoolbooks, clothing, undelivered mail and certain amounts of furniture and household items. The IRS also can't seize your primary home without court approval. It also must show there is no reasonable, alternative way to collect the tax debt from you.
- If you submit an offer to settle your tax debt, and the offer relates only to how much you owe (known as a Doubt as to Liability Offer in Compromise), you do not need to submit any financial documentation.

- The IRS should not seek intrusive and extraneous information about your lifestyle during an audit if there is no reasonable sign that you have unreported income.
 - During a Collection Due Process hearing, the Office of Appeals must consider whether the IRS’s proposed collection action balances the need for efficient tax collection with ensuring the IRS’s collection actions are no more intrusive to you than necessary.
 - More information about the IRS Privacy Policy is available online.
- To find out more about the TBOR and what it means to you visit the Taxpayer Advocate Service’s website. By making this important publication available in multiple languages, the IRS hopes to increase the number of Americans who know and understand their rights under the tax law. The IRS has more tax information in other languages too. See the “Languages” menu at the top of any IRS.gov page. The IRS also is committed to protecting taxpayers’ civil rights. The IRS will not tolerate discrimination based on age, color, disability, race, reprisal, national origin, English proficiency, religion, sex, sexual orientation or status as a parent. This includes any contact with IRS employees and the staff or volunteers at community sites.
- If a taxpayer faces discrimination, they can send a written complaint PDF to the IRS Civil Rights Division.

LOOKING FOR AN AFFORDABLE USED CAR?

SICK OF BUYING rusty junk off of Craigslist and then spending more than you paid for it trying to get it functional or to pass inspection? At Central Auto Sales I take pride in buying quality cars that are still in excellent condition that can supply you with many miles of service in the future. I typically buy my cars from states south of NY to avoid the rust associated with local cars. I have a nice selection of cars in the affordable $3-5K range, most are low miles or low miles for the age. I'm a lifetime resident of Norwich. Buy from someone local. No pressure, no fancy hype, just quality cars at fair prices! Central Auto Sales LLC, 429 Manley Road, Norwich. www.centralautosalesllc.com 607-336-6371.
