Medicare Reminder - Medigap overview Medigaps are health insurance policies that offer standardized benefits to work with Original Medicare (not with Medicare Advantage). They are sold by private insurance companies. If you have a Medigap, it pays part or all of certain remaining costs after Original Medicare pays first. Medigaps may cover outstanding deductibles, coinsurance, and copayments. Medigaps may also cover health care costs that Medicare does not cover at all, like care received when traveling abroad. Remember, Medigaps only work with Original Medicare. If you have a Medicare Advantage Plan, you cannot buy a Medigap. Depending on where you live and when you became eligible for Medicare, you have up to 10 different Medigap policies to choose from: A, B, C, D, F, G, K, L, M, and N (policies in Wisconsin, Massachusetts, and Minnesota have different names). Each policy offers a different set of standardized benefits, meaning that policies with the same letter name offer the same benefits. However, premiums can vary from company to company.

Life Chat: Join us February 27, 2024 at 1:00PM at The Gathering Place to learn more about how to incorporate Mindfulness every day, and experience how it can make life more full, less stressful, and more enjoyable. ENHANCING YOUR LIFE WITH MINDFULNESS - Mindfulness has become a “buzz word” in our world – but what does it really mean? What techniques can we use to incorporate its many benefits in our day to day lives – everything from how we eat to how we move to how we communicate with others. Speaker: Judi England, RN, LMT, Independent Health Educator, Professional certified Kripalu Yoga Instructor. Over the years Judi’s work has focused on providing tools for mindful self-care. She is a Registered Nurse, and has offered programs on yoga, meditation, mindfulness, wellness, and stress management for over 30 years to individuals and groups throughout the Capital Region.

Important Tax Prep Information: Our tax site will now have an income threshold for the year 2023, your income must be under $65,000 to be completed at OFA. The process will be very similar to last year; a drop off appt, copies and intake left here for volunteers to complete, and then a pick-up appointment to review and approve for e-filing. For an appointment call 518-295-2001. Please note we have screening questions we must ask everyone. Thank you for your patience.

Tax & Finance

THE RIGHT TO CONFIDENTIALITY

The Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TBOR) is a cornerstone document that highlights the 10 fundamental rights taxpayers have when dealing with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The IRS wants every taxpayer to be aware of these rights in the event they need to work with the IRS on a personal tax matter. The IRS continues to publicly highlight these rights to taxpayers. The IRS also regularly reminds its employees about these rights. The IRS expects employees to understand and apply taxpayer rights throughout every encounter with taxpayers. IRS Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, includes a full list of taxpayers' rights. It includes The Right to Confidentiality. Taxpayers have the right to expect that any information they provide to the IRS will not be disclosed unless authorized by the taxpayer or by law. Taxpayers have the right to expect appropriate action will be taken against employees, return preparers, and others who wrongfully use or disclose taxpayer return information. What you can expect:

- In general, the IRS may not disclose your tax information to third parties unless you give us permission. (Example: You request that we disclose information for a mortgage or student loan application.)
- In general, the IRS can't contact third parties such as your employer, neighbors or bank, to get information to adjust or collect the tax you owe unless it gives you reasonable notice in advance.

- Generally, the same confidentiality protection that you have with an attorney also applies to certain communications with someone who is authorized to practice before the IRS, such as a certified public accountant or enrolled agent. Confidential communications are those that:
 - Advise you on tax matters (other than tax return preparation) within the scope of the practitioner's authority to practice before the IRS,
 - Would be confidential between an attorney and you, and
 - Relate to noncriminal tax matters before the IRS, or
 - Relate to noncriminal tax proceedings brought in federal court by or against the United States.If tax preparers knowingly or recklessly disclose or use your tax information for any reason other than for tax return preparation, they may face criminal fines and prison.
