Congratulations!

Sylas Emerson

and Good Luck from all of your co-workers at Bartle's Pharmacy

Sylas Emerson is a High Honor Roll student and member of the National Honor Society since November 2022. Sylas plays Varsity Basketball and Golf and is a Lifeguard at Oxford Town Pool. He has also done volunteer work with Diane Troxell (All Animals Matter) and a delegate for American Legion Boys State 2023.

Sylas plans to attend SUNY Cortland to pursue a degree in Physical Education, with the hopes of teaching Middle/High School PE. Congratulations, Sylas!

Congratulations!

Ethan Hodge

and Good Luck from all of your co-workers at Bartle's Pharmacy

Ethan Hodge is a senior at Oxford Academy. He will be attending Binghamton University in the fall to study Physics and History. After Binghamton, he plans to attend law school to chase his dream of becoming a lawyer.

He currently works part time at Bartle's Pharmacy. In Ethan's free time he enjoys board games, and the more complicated the better! However, in the last few years, Ethan can be found on the golf course as he is always trying to fit in another round when he can! Congratulations Ethan!

NBT Thursday Concert Series Coming to Norwich

Norwich, N. Y. – (June 13, 2024) – The Chenango Blues Association has been hard at work putting together this summer’s concerts, and as we all know – hard work pays off! East Park in downtown Norwich will host an impressive roster of artists, and every performance is free! Few places can boast of this level of talent being presented without cost so plan to come on down with family and friends and enjoy some top shelf performances.

Kicking things off on July 11th is the return of long-time favorite Eric Lindell. It’s been almost a decade since he last performed in Chenango County and fans will be eagerly waiting for his return. Eric’s melding of West Coast rock, Gulf Coast R&B and Memphis soul is perfect summer in the park music. On July 18th The Iguanas will make another alumni appearance after a too long absence. They bring a unique blend of south of the border music and the Southern blues and jazz folded in to New Orleans R&B. The Iguanas have played together for three decades with nary a lineup change and that continuity and comradery shines through in every song. Closing out Thursdays in July will be a very rare performance by the James Hunter Six. Flying in from England for the show their unique soul sound has electrified audiences around the world. Most of his stateside dates are as a guest of Bonnie Raitt this year so don’t miss this chance to see a stellar live show with his six-piece band.

August promises to bring big crowds to Norwich as it features some big name draws. August 1st it will be Sister Sparrow and the Dirty Birds, another group that performs a very limited number of dates, and you can be assured none of the others will be free. Arleigh Kincheloe has been hailed as “one of the biggest voices in rock music” by NPR and their live shows are electrifying. Following Sister Sparrow will be the return of long-time favorite The Garcia Project. Their faithful recreation of Jerry Garcia Bands setlists channel Jerry in ways few, if any, can. They capture more than the sound of a show – they capture the feeling. Next up is the Chenango Blues Fest “pre-show” with the Blood Brothers on August 15th. Mike Zito and Albert Castiglia are terrific individual artists, but together they create an experience greater than the sum of its parts. It will be an incredible start to a highlight reel of a weekend.

Two very special shows will close out this year’s NBT Summer Concert Series. On August 22nd the Sam Bush Band will make a trip to downtown Norwich for the first time. Organizers have been trying to make this show happen for years so excitement is running high. Sam is the godfather of the progressive newgrass movement that has achieved high popularity well beyond its traditional bluegrass roots. He has won multiple Grammys and IBMA Mandolin Player of the Year Awards. Sam has been inducted into the IBMA Hall of Fame twice, one of only six artists to be so honored. Don’t miss a chance to see a legend. The summer will end with a bang – Keller Williams is coming to town. Un-beholden to conventionalism, he seamlessly crosses genre boundaries. Playing solo, he accompanies himself on acoustic guitar, bass, guitar synthesizer and drum samples. The end result is a hybrid of alternative folk and groovy electronica and if you aren’t yet familiar, we think you’ll soon be a fan.

Every Thursday show starts at 7:00 PM with the exception of the Blues Fest weekend show on August 15th – that one starts at 6:30. There are always food vendors on site with everything from BBQ and pizza to grilled cheese sandwiches. Park Place restaurant has a full-service outdoor area with food and drinks and a great view of the stage.

The Chenango Blues Association would like to gratefully acknowledge the support of NBT Bank. Without their contribution free shows of this caliber would not be possible. They would also like to acknowledge the very meaningful support of the Greater Norwich Foundation, the RC Smith Foundation and other generous local foundations. Similarly, their support is critical to presenting these all-ages free shows.

Further information on all the activities of the Chenango Blues Association can be found on the group’s website at www.chenangobluesfest.org.
