MAKE WAY FOR THE COACHING PARADE

Submitted by Village of Richfield Springs Historian Harriett Geywits

There are coaches and there are coaches ----- the type that was most popular in our area in the late 1800s was the horse pulled variety. Among the many events to attract the attention of the visitors to this area, there was none better than that of holding a coaching parade. This was the event of the summer which brought all of the elegant guests, their carriages of all types and best horses out to be seen and admired by one and all.

It was the era when good horse flesh was not only admired, but was a necessity for work as well as pleasure. An example of the pleasure and pride taken by the affluent in their horses and rigs is shown in 1893 when what was described as a 'gala day' took place.

“The finest spectacle that has been seen at Richfield in a long time was the coaching parade. There are an unusual number of handsome turnouts in town this season and this parade far surpassed those of former seasons. No prettier sight can be imagined than the long line of breaks, traps, Victorias, and surreys, many of which were trimmed with flowers, as they came down Main Street, both sides of which were lined with admiring spectators from the Kendellwood to the National. All of the hotels, cottages and stores along the route were decorated, noticeably among which was the Earlington, the store of M. Tuller and Son and the Tuller House.

The parade was formed by Mr. John R. Townsend, who gave the place of honor as lead, to Mr. Benjamin Orne with his handsome English coach, a distinction well deserved. It is safe to say that there has never been a finer turnout in Richfield than this coach. In its proportions as well as its appointment, it is perfect and he has also the best bugler in town, which is no small feature. Mr. Orne may justly be proud of this beautiful turnout and it is to be regretted that there was no class at the horse show in which he could enter it.

The second in the line was John R. Schults Jr., who drove his break and four in hand. He was accompanied by Mr. Chauncey. Next came the handsome break and four of Mr. Frank D. Beard, which was the first prize winner in the horse show. In his party were his brother and two of their friends.

The Earlington coach followed and made a very pretty sight with its load of beautiful ladies. Mr. Wm. P. Earle, 2d, was whip and the seat beside him was occupied by Miss Moss.

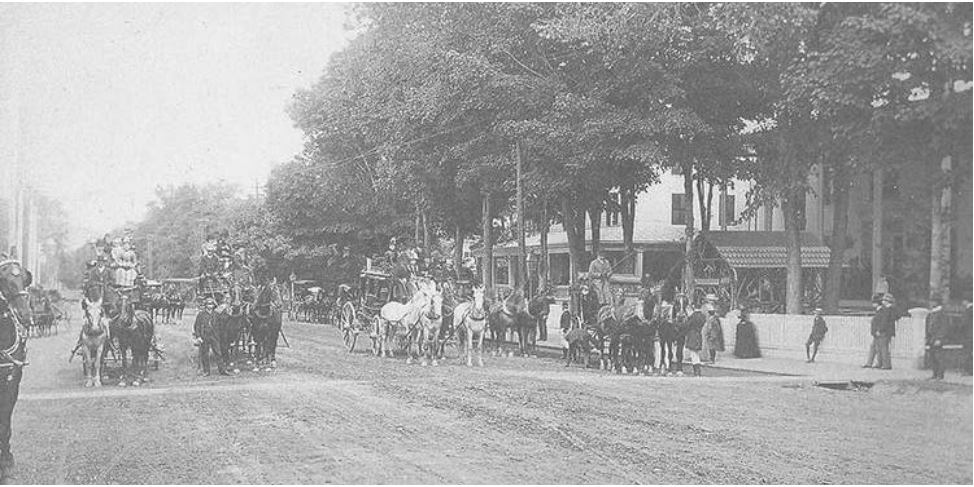

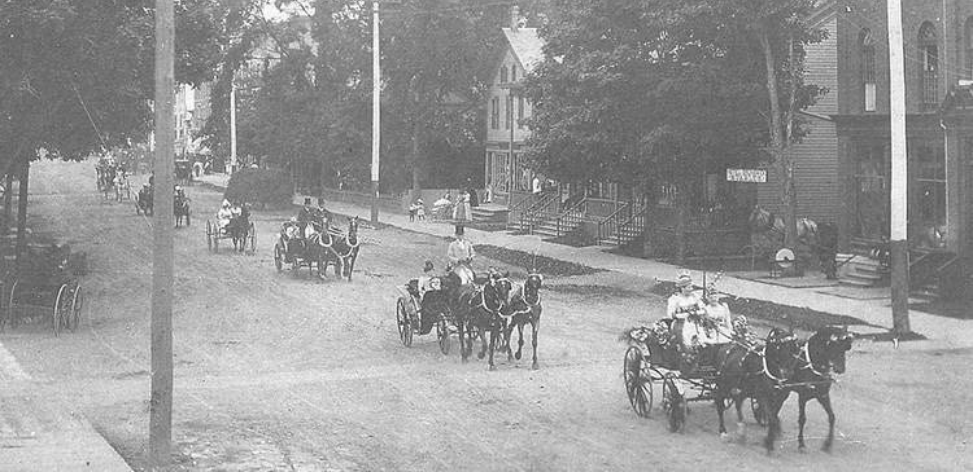

Mr. Rudd, proprietor of the Grand Hotel at Cherry Valley came next with his break. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rudd and several men and women from that area.

The last break in the parade was Capt. E. L. Brand's. He drove a three-in-hand, all of them hitched abreast, which is quite a novelty and attracted considerable attention. He has a very handsome break and his horses are surpassed by none in town.

The smaller turnouts and occupants followed: Mr. Clinton Spencer with his game-cart with beautiful bay and gray horses, Silver King and Sunbeam. His turnout is of the latest style and complete in every particular and was one of the most admired in the parade. He was accompanied by his mother.

Mr. J. E. Masters of the Tuller House with one of the finest horses in town which he drove to a smart little trap which was occupied by Mrs. Masters and Mr. and Mrs. West.

Mr. George Watson with his tandem and handsome English cart; Mrs. John Townsend with her handsome game cart accompanied by Mr. E. Tailer; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Earle in their Victoria trimmed with flowers; Mrs. Richard Crocker accompanied by her pretty young daughter, in her cabriolet which is the finest turnout of its kind in town; Mrs. Wardwell and Mrs. Edwards in a park phaeton; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Beckwith in their handsome cabriolet; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Carpenter in their cabriolet; a park phaeton belonging to Mr. Dries of Stanfield Villa was surrounded by hops; Mr. Luis Kerr with a handsome team and light wood surrey; Mr. Major and his surrey accompanied by Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Major; the surrey of Mr. Halstead, superintendent of the D. L. & W. railroad, beautifully trimmed with flowers and occupied by is niece Miss Haring and her friend Miss Griffith; Mr. McNulty and daughter in their pretty trap; Mrs. Mosley with her Victoria was accompanied by her daughter; Mrs. Kensell in her dos-a-dos accompanied by Mr. H. B. Rockwood; Mrs. H. G. Staples with her surrey accompanied by

Mrs. E. H. Earle; Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley with their dos-a-dos and handsome gray and chestnut horses; Mr. D. H. Taylor with surrey, accompanied by Mrs. George Taylor and Miss Owens and Miss Chittenden; Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Johnson, Miss Ayman, Mr. Bradley Johnson Jr. were in a surrey; Judge Thomas Feitner and family were in a three-seated light wood wagon; Miss Maxwell, Miss Hershaw, Miss Moore and Mr. Moore in a light wood surrey.”

A brief explanation of some of the types of conveyances that were common then, but are no longer familiar to most of us, might be of help. You'll note that several of them were meant for use by those who enjoyed hunting in the area:

Dog Cart - a two wheeled cart with seating for four and room under the seats to hold sportsmen's dogs; Dos-a-Dos - a dog cart having four wheels and seats set back to back; Turnout - a coach or carriage together with horses, harness and attendants; Game Cart - a four wheeled dog cart; Trap - a lightly used, one horse carriage with springs; Tandem - two seated carriage drawn by horses harnessed one before the other; Victoria - a four wheeled pleasure carriage for two with folding top and raised seat in front for the driver; Cabriolet - a light, two wheeled one horse carriage with folding leather hood and large rigid shield in front of the seat; Phaeton - any of various four wheeled horse drawn vehicles; Break - an open country, four wheeled carriage capable of holding six with space for dogs and sporting equipment under the seats and raised box for the driver.

A coaching parade was attempted at least once during each season until with changing times, horses were replaced with automobiles and the number of elite members of society who chose to come to Richfield lessened. In its era, it was truly a sight to behold!
